Employees selected by the Union to act as Union representatives shall be known as "Stewards". One Steward shall be designated by the Union as the "Chief Steward". The names of the employees so selected (including the alternates designated to act in their absence) and those of other Union representatives authorized to represent employees will be certified in writing to the Employer by the Union. The Union will also certify the names of the members, not to exceed five (5) in number, who will constitute the Union Committee for the purpose of Labor-Management meetings.

Except for the time approved for the processing of grievances under Article IV, Section 6, Union Stewards will perform all of the duties related to their position as Union Steward during non-work times. If the performance of their Union Steward duties involves another bargaining unit employee, then the duties shall be performed during non-work times for both employees.

Section 2        Union Representatives

The Union shall advise the Employer in writing as to its International Union Representative and/or Council Representative assigned to represent the bargaining unit. Such Union Representative or other person authorized by the Union may visit bargaining unit job sites for the purpose of verifying Employer compliance with this agreement. Representatives shall conduct their activities in such a manner as to not unreasonably interfere with the Employer's operations.

Section 3        Union Leave

Any employee chosen by the Union as a delegate to a labor convention or to participate in a Union seminar shall be granted an unpaid leave of absence to attend the convention or seminar. Not more than ten (10) working days shall be granted collectively to all employees for Union leave. Not more than one (1) employee per department/office and not more than four (4) employees in total shall be granted Union leave at any one time. Union leave shall be granted unless to do so would jeopardize the department's ability to perform its responsibilities.

Section 4        Bulletin Boards

The Union shall be allowed to use a designated bulletin board for the posting of information to the employees in the unit.

Section 5 Discrimination

The parties agree that their respective policies consistent with the Code of Iowa will not violate the rights or discriminate against any employee covered by this Agreement because of age, race, sex, creed, color, national origin or disability. If an employee files a discrimination complaint with a governmental agency, then the employer shall not be required to process a grievance related to such complaint.

ARTICLE III Dues Deduction

Section 1 Deduction Authorized

In accordance with the provisions of this Article, the Employer shall deduct certified regular monthly Union dues and fees from the pay of each employee, provided that at the time of such deduction the Employer has in its possession a written authorization executed by the employee on the form provided by the Union.

Section 2 Effective Date

The effective date of the written authorization shall be the first day of the payroll period immediately following receipt of the form provided by the Union.

Such orders shall be terminable with written notice to the Employer and the Union within a two-week period following the anniversary date of the Employee's authorization to withhold dues. The Employer agrees not to hold requests to terminate authorization for payroll dues deduction. Such deductions shall cease within sixty (60) calendar days from receipt of the Employee's notice to terminate dues deduction.

Section 3 Remitting of Dues

Within fifteen (15) days from the pay date of such payroll deductions, the Employer shall remit the amounts thereof showing the names, address, social security number and amount of dues withheld, of employees to AFSCME/IOWA Council 61.

Section 4 Indemnification

The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, orders, or judgments arising out of the operation of this Article.

Section 5          Payment Problems

The Employer shall check off only certified monthly dues and fees for the payroll period involved. If the pay of the employee is insufficient to permit such check-off, such dues and fees shall not be deducted from subsequent pay periods. In such event, it shall be the Union's responsibility to collect these dues and fees from the employee.

If the Employer deducts dues and fees pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and the Employer has made a duplicate payment to the Union directly, it shall be the responsibility of the employee to collect such duplicate payment from the Union.

ARTICLE IV Grievance Procedures

Section 1          Definitions

A grievance is a claim that there has been a violation, misinterpretation, or a misapplication of a specific provision of this Agreement.

"Days" means calendar days. If the last calendar day on which action is required to be taken is a holiday, then the time limit shall be extended to the next calendar day, which is not a Saturday or Sunday, following the holiday.

A "grievant" is the employee or group of employees filing the grievance.

A grievance shall contain a statement of the grievance by indicating the issue involved, the relief sought, the date the incident or violation took place, if known, and the specific section or sections of the Agreement involved. The grievance shall be presented to the Department Head and/or designee (on forms furnished by the Union) and signed and dated by the Union. The grievance form will state the name of the employee(s) authorizing the filing of the grievance. An aggrieved Employee shall have the right to a Union Representative appointed by the Union at all steps of the grievance procedure.

Any bargaining unit employee shall have the right to meet and adjust his/her individual complaint with the Employer.

The arbitration provisions of this Agreement may only be invoked with the approval of the employee organization and in the case of an employee's grievance only with the approval of the public employee.

The employee and/or steward are encouraged during the fourteen (14) days filing period to discuss and attempt to resolve the grievance prior to writing out the grievance. All grievances must be presented promptly and no later than fourteen (14) days from the date the grievant first became aware of, or should have become aware of with the exercise of reasonable diligence, the cause of such grievance.

Section 2 Time Limits

If a grievance is not presented within any of the time limits specified in this article, it shall be waived and the Employer's last answer shall be final and binding. Grievances not answered by the Employer within the designated time limits in any step of the grievance procedure will be considered as having been denied and the grievance will be automatically appealed to the next step. In order to be considered timely, a hearing regarding a grievance which is appealed to arbitration via the Board of Supervisors must be scheduled no later than sixty (60) days from the date the grievance was appealed to arbitration.

If an arbitration hearing is not held within the above mentioned sixty (60) days, the grievance will be considered denied. Authority to schedule a hearing rests with the arbitrator should the parties disagree. The parties may, however, mutually agree in writing to extend the time limits in any step of the grievance procedure.

In the event the U.S. mail is used, the mailing of the grievance or response thereto shall be considered timely if postmarked within the time limits.

Section 3 Procedures

All grievances will be handled in accordance with the following procedures:

Step One. Within seven (7) days of receipt of the written grievance from the employee or his/her Union Representative, the Department Head and/or designee shall schedule a meeting with the appropriate Union Representative and Grievant and attempt to resolve the grievance. A written answer will be placed on the grievance following the meeting by the Department Head and/or designee and returned to the employee and his/her Union Representative within fourteen (14) days from the receipt of the written grievance submitted to the Department Head or designee.

Step Two. If the grievance is not settled in Step One, it may be appealed by the grievant, or his/her Union Representative, to the Board within twenty-one (21) days after the written answer of the Department Head and/or designee. The Board shall meet and attempt to resolve the grievance with the appropriate Union Representative and Grievant within twenty-one (21) days after the appeal is received by the Board. The Board shall render a decision to the grievant and his/her Union Representative within fourteen (14) days following the meeting with the grievant.

Section 4 Appeal to Arbitration

Any grievance not settled to the satisfaction of the Union in Step Two of the grievance procedure may be appealed to arbitration, providing the appeal to arbitration is in writing to the other party. An employee may not appeal to arbitration without the approval of the Union. This appeal must be made within thirty (30) days after the date upon which the Board issued a final answer in the Second Step of the grievance procedure.

Section 5 Arbitration

Within seven (7) days from the date of the receipt of the written request for arbitration, the Employer and the Union shall meet and either mutually agree upon an arbitrator or the parties or party, acting jointly or separately, shall request the PERB to submit a list of five (5) arbitrators from which one (1) arbitrator shall be selected to hear and decide the grievance. The Employer and the Union shall meet within seven (7) days from receipt of said list and alternately strike four (4) names from the submitted list, and the person whose name is left shall be the arbitrator, provided however, the Union and the Employer may mutually agree that the list of proposed arbitrators is unacceptable and will thereafter jointly petition the PERB for a new list of five (5) arbitrators. The party making the first strike shall be determined by a flip of a coin.

The arbitrator shall conduct a hearing on the grievance within a reasonable time and shall be empowered to rule on all disputes. However, he shall have no power to change or amend the terms, conditions or applications of this agreement or any other agreement made supplementary hereto. The decision reached by the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Employer and the Union, the decision of the arbitrator and the findings upon which it is based shall be in writing and the copies thereof presented to each party within thirty (30) calendar days from the date the hearing terminates.

If two (2) or more grievances are appealed to arbitration, the parties will attempt to agree upon a single arbitrator to hear the grievances. If the parties fail to agree to combine the grievances, then each grievance will be submitted to a separate arbitrator.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator will be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall pay its own cost of preparation and presentation for arbitration. No stenographic transcript of the arbitration hearing shall be made unless requested by a party. The cost of stenographic reporting of the hearing shall be borne by the party requesting the same. Such cost shall include a copy of the transcript for the arbitrator and the non-requesting party should either or both of them desire the same. Each of the parties shall bear the cost of their own witnesses, including any lost wages that may be incurred. The arbitrators shall only have authority to determine the compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction or authority to add to, amend, modify, nullify, or ignore in any way the provisions of this Agreement and shall not make any award which in effect would grant the Union or the Employer any matters which were not obtained in the negotiation process.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties of this Agreement provided such decision does not exceed the arbitrator's jurisdiction or authority as set forth above.

Section 6          Processing Grievances

If the employee's Supervisor and the Union Representative's Supervisor agree, grievances may be, but are not required to be, processed during regular working hours without loss of pay.

Processing grievances shall be defined as investigating grievances, filing grievances, and attending any step 1 or 2 meetings regarding grievances. However, only one (1) local Union grievance representative will be in pay status for any one grievance. Whenever possible the Union representatives will provide twenty-four (24) hours notice to their supervisor. Further, in a group grievance, only one (1) of the grievants shall be in pay status as spokesperson for the group. (Group grievances are defined as, and limited to, those grievances which cover more than one employee, and which involve like circumstances and facts for the grievants involved.) The employer is not responsible for any compensation of employees or Union representatives for time spent processing grievances outside their regularly scheduled hours of employment.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, the Employer agrees to conduct all grievance meetings involving second or third shift employees either during the shift or at a time which is contiguous to the employee's shift. The Employer is not responsible for any compensation of second or third shift employees for such grievance meetings unless the Employer specifically requests or if the parties mutually agree that the grievant attend the hearing in which case the grievant shall be compensated for the actual time spent in such hearing at his/her regular hourly rate and shall not be counted as hours worked for purposes of computing overtime.

Section 7 Exclusive Procedure

The grievance procedure set out above shall be exclusive and shall replace any other grievance procedure for adjustment of any disputes arising from the application and interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 8 Exclusion of Grievant

An aggrieved employee is entitled to be present at all steps of the grievance procedure. Should the employee be excused by either party the grievance shall be processed in the absence of the aggrieved employee and the Union will be allowed one (1) representative in pay status.

Section 9 Retroactivity

Settlement of grievance may or may not be retroactive as the equities of particular cases may demand. In any case, where it is determined that the award should be applied retroactively, the maximum period of retroactivity allowed shall be a date not earlier than twenty-four (24) days prior to the date of initiation of the written grievance in Step One.

Section 10 Number of Stewards

For information purposes only, the Union shall provide the Human Resources Director of Woodbury County with a written list setting forth the names of the Stewards.

The Employer shall supply the local Union with a list of supervisors to contact on grievance matters.

Section 11 Discipline and Discharge

The Union recognizes the right of the employer to suspend, discharge or take other appropriate disciplinary action for just cause. The employer agrees to use progressive discipline where appropriate.

The intention to take disciplinary action shall be reported to the Director of Human Resources prior to taking any action. The Director of the Human Resources shall inform the Union prior to any disciplinary action being taken. However, the employer may immediately suspend an employee with pay while an investigation is pending.

Any disciplinary action may be processed as a grievance through the grievance procedure. A grievance based on a suspension without pay or discharge shall begin with the second step of the grievance procedure. Grievances of all other disciplinary actions shall begin with the first step of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE V

Seniority

Section 1        Definition of Seniority

Seniority is defined as an employee's length of continuous service with the County, since their date of hire. Any length of service in a temporary position shall be included in the computation of seniority if the employment was contiguous to the appointment to a permanent position.

In the event two (2) employees have the same original date of employment, seniority of one as against the other shall be determined by the last four (4) digits of the social security number with the employee having the lower last four (4) digits of the social security number being considered as having the greater seniority.

Section 2        Seniority Records

The seniority records for employees shall be maintained by the Employer, shall be provided to the Union, and shall be updated annually. A similar list will be posted on all bulletin boards where bargaining unit personnel are employed. Objections to the list may be filed as a grievance, and corrections will be made appropriately.

Section 3        Termination of Seniority

An employee shall lose seniority and the employment relationship shall be terminated in the following cases: (a) employee quits; (b) employee is discharged; (c) employee fails to report to work at the end of leave of absence; or (d) employee retires. Provided further that layoff of two (2) years or less, any suspension for disciplinary purposes, absence on authorized leave with or without pay and absence while receiving temporary total disability benefits under the Iowa Worker's Compensation Act, not to exceed one year, shall not constitute a break or interruption in service within the meaning of this Article.

Section 4 Probationary Period

For purposes of this contract the probationary period for new employees shall be one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days. This probationary period shall begin to run from the first day of the employee's service as a permanent employee and may be extended by the Department Head, at his/her discretion, for an additional period of one hundred and eighty (180) consecutive calendar days. If an employee's probationary period is extended, the Department Head shall provide the employee with a written explanation of the reason(s) for the extension.

ARTICLE VI Staff Reduction Procedures

Section 1 Classification

For purposes of these procedures, employees will be classified by job classification within their department as defined in Article VII, Section 1, Transfer Procedures.

Section 2 Procedures

If the Department Head decides to lay employees off or reduce the hours of employment, the least senior employee in the affected job classification in the Department shall be laid off or shall have their hours reduced first. Provided they have more seniority than the employee being displaced, laid off employees or employees whose hours have been reduced shall have the right to displace the least senior employee in another job classification in their Department or the least senior employee in another Department provided they meet the minimum job requirements as specified in the job description to perform the work in that classification or are working in that classification at the time of layoff. The Department Head may not lay off or reduce the hours of any regular full-time or regular part-time employees until they have eliminated all positions in the classification in the following order: temporary and probationary.

Section 3 Recall

Laid off employees shall advise the Employer of their current addresses during layoff. If the Employer desires to recall employees, such employees shall be recalled in the inverse order of layoff. Laid off employees shall have recall rights for two (2) years from the effective date of their layoff.

Employees shall be entitled to be recalled to a vacancy in the position in which they were employed at the time of layoff and to any position in another Department provided they meet the minimum job requirements as specified in the job description to perform the work in that position.

A copy of all vacancies posted during an employee's recall rights period shall be mailed to him/her by the Personnel Office by ordinary mail to the employee's address on file in the office of the Human Resources Director.

The Employer shall notify an employee of his/her recall in writing by certified mail to the employee's address on file in the office of the Human Resources Director. An employee's failure to report to work within ten (10) calendar days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, after receipt of the recall letter shall result in the termination of the employee's recall rights.

ARTICLE VII

Transfer Procedures

Section 1        Definition

"Transfer" means the movement of an employee within or between job classifications.

"Vacancy" means a newly created job or a permanent position that has been vacated.

"Department" means Board of Supervisor's office, County Attorney's office, Auditor/Recorder's office, Treasurer's office, Sheriff's office and the Planning and Zoning Office.

Section 2        Temporary Transfer Procedures

The Employer shall have the right to temporarily transfer employees from one job to another when deemed necessary. The employee transferred will be the employee who has the least seniority in the job classification in the Department. Such temporary transfers shall not exceed thirty (30) calendar days. This thirty (30) day limitation does not apply when such transfer is made to replace an employee on an extended leave of absence. If the temporarily transferred employee is fully performing the duties of the position with a higher rate of pay than his/her permanent position for more than ten (10) working days during a contract year, the employee will be paid at the higher rate of pay, starting with the eleventh day, that he/she would have been paid if promoted to that position. The employee shall be notified in writing as to a transfer effected in conformance with the provisions of this section. Notification shall include the title and the rate of pay of the job to which temporarily transferred.

Section 3 Permanent Transfer Procedures

The Employer shall have the exclusive right to determine whether a vacancy exists and whether to fill a vacancy. If the Employer determines that a vacancy exists and will be filled, recall procedures shall be implemented, if applicable, before the vacancy is posted.

A. Transfers Within Departments

Notice of vacancies shall be posted in the Human Resources Department and in the Department in which the vacancy exists for at least ten (10) calendar days, excluding the day of posting.

The Department Head shall review all applicants, and any applicant who does not meet the requirements of the job description for the vacancy shall not be considered for transfer.

The Department Head shall have the discretion to post the vacancy only for applicants from within his/her Department or to post the vacancy for all applicants.

If the vacancy is posted within the Department, then the Department Head shall select the most senior qualified applicant from within the Department. If there is only one qualified applicant from within the Department, that employee shall be granted the transfer.

B. Transfers Between Departments

If the vacancy is posted for all applicants and if there are both applicants from within the Department and from within the bargaining unit outside the Department, then the Department Head shall have the option of selecting the most senior qualified applicant from within the Department or the most senior qualified applicant from within the bargaining unit.

C. Promotions/Hiring From Outside

If the vacancy is posted for all applicants and there are no qualified applicants from within the Department, then the Department Head shall have the option of selecting an applicant from within the bargaining unit or from outside the bargaining unit.

If the vacancy is filled from outside the bargaining unit, the Department Head shall, upon written request, provide a statement of reasons for the selection to the bargaining unit applicants who were not selected. The Department Head's decision to select an applicant from outside the bargaining unit shall not be arbitrary or capricious.

Section 4 Pay Grade Assignment

If an employee is transferred to a position having a higher pay grade, the employee will be placed on the step in the higher pay grade which is closest to and higher than the employee's current rate of pay and will then be advanced one (1) step beyond that step. If the step in the higher pay grade is equivalent to the employee's current rate of pay, the employee will be advanced two (2) steps beyond that step. If an employee is transferred to a position having the same or a lower pay grade, the employee's rate of pay will not change unless the rate exceeds the highest step rate in which case it will be lowered to the highest step rate.

If an employee is transferred to a position having a higher pay grade, the date of transfer will become the eligibility date for future step increases. For all other transfers, the eligibility date for future step increases will not change.

Section 5 Disciplinary Temporary Transfer Procedures

The Employer shall have the right to temporarily transfer an employee from one office or job location to another for disciplinary reasons when the employer can document concerns over the employee's job performance. This temporary transfer shall not exceed six (6) months. The employee transferred will maintain their current rate of pay. The employee shall be notified in writing as to a transfer effected in conformance with the provisions of this section. This notice shall include the reasons for the temporary transfer and the location transferred to. The Employer shall also notify the Union whenever an employee is temporarily transferred, the notice shall also include the reason for the transfer. Temporary transfers may be grieved if the Union or the employee believes the transfer is being done without proper cause.

Any extensions of the six (6) month period must be mutually agreed to by the Union.

ARTICLE VIII Hours of Work

Section 1 Daily Hours

This Article is intended to define the normal hours of work per day. Fluctuating or flexible work schedules may be allowed where there is mutual agreement between the employee and his/her Department Head.

The regular work day for full-time employees shall consist of eight (8) hours exclusive of the meal period. The regular work day for part-time employees shall be determined by the Department Head. The regular work week for full-time employees shall consist of forty (40) hours in a seven (7) day period.

Section 2 Change in Hours

Daily and weekly work schedules may be changed by the Department Head from time to time to meet the Department's requirements. Employees shall be given fourteen (14) calendar days notice, both orally and in writing, of any change in work schedules except in cases of emergency. Employees shall be required to work the hours scheduled by the Department Head, including all hours scheduled during any emergency or emergency situation. The existence of emergencies and emergency situations shall be determined by the Department Head. Work schedules may not be changed for the purpose of avoiding overtime unless the employee has been provided fourteen (14) work days notice.

The hours of full-time or part-time employees will not be reduced for the sole purpose of eliminating full-time or part-time benefits. This provision shall not affect the order or procedures for reduction of staff.

Section 3 Work Breaks

Each employee scheduled to work for eight (8) hours in one (1) day shall receive two (2) paid fifteen (15) minute breaks at times designated by his/her supervisor. All other employees shall receive one (1) paid fifteen (15) minute break at a time designated by his/her supervisor.

Section 4 Meal Periods

Employees shall be granted a one-half (1/2) hour meal period, or a forty-five (45) minute meal period, or a one (1) hour meal period, at the discretion of the Department Head. The meal period will be without pay and will be scheduled at the approximate middle of the shift.

Section 5 Shift Differential

The Employer agrees to pay, in addition to the employee's regular hourly rate, a shift differential of $0.50 per hour for any regularly scheduled permanent shift of which four (4) or more hours occur between 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. Employees who work rotating shifts on a regularly scheduled permanent basis shall be eligible for shift differential.

Employees shall not be eligible for shift differential pursuant to this Section as a result of an extension of their regular work day into a shift differential period. For purposes of this Section a regularly scheduled permanent shift is defined as those situations where an employee is assigned to the same shift for a period of time in excess of two (2) weeks (fourteen calendar days). Employees entitled to shift differential shall receive the applicable shift differential for all hours worked.

Section 6 Overtime

A. Definition

Work performed by all employees in excess of forty (40) hours in any week shall be overtime hours. The work week shall begin at 12:00 a.m. (midnight) on Monday and shall end the following Monday at 11:59 p.m.

B. Computation of Overtime

Holidays, paid sick leave days, vacation days, and all days or hours in pay status shall be counted as days worked in computing overtime. All other days on which an employee does not work shall not be counted as days worked in computing overtime.

C. Approval of Overtime

No employee shall be compensated for overtime work unless such work has been approved by the employee's supervisor.

D. Overtime Pay and Compensatory Time

Unless the employee and the supervisor agree that overtime hours will be compensated with time off, overtime hours shall be compensated in cash.

If overtime hours are compensated in cash, payment shall be made in accordance with Section 7 of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

If overtime hours are compensated with time off, compensatory time shall be provided at a rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) hours for each hour of overtime employment. Compensatory time may be accumulated to a maximum of two hundred and forty (240) hours. If compensation is paid to an employee for accrued compensatory time off, such compensation shall be paid at the regular rate earned by the employee at the time the employee receives the compensation. Accrued compensatory time off not used by June 10 shall be paid for in cash prior to July 1. Employees will be paid in cash for accrued compensatory time prior to transfer to a higher paying position.

Upon termination of employment, employees who have accrued compensatory time, shall be paid for unused compensatory time at a rate of compensation not less than:

- (1) the average regular rate received by the employee during the last three (3) years of the individual's employment, or
- (2) the final regular rate received by the employee, whichever is higher.

Employees who have accrued compensatory time off, may request the use of compensatory time and shall be permitted to use such time within a reasonable period after making the request if the use of compensatory time does not unduly disrupt the operations of the Department.

E. Distribution of Overtime

Where overtime is approved, it shall be distributed equitably among employees in the same job classification with the understanding that nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the employer from assigning overtime on a given job to an employee already assigned to that specific task.

F. Overtime Breaks and Meal Periods

Employees who are scheduled to work less than four (4) hours overtime shall receive a fifteen (15) minute rest period before they commence work beyond their regular shift. If an employee is scheduled for overtime work which will extend four (4) hours beyond his/her regularly scheduled shift, a thirty (30) minute meal period will be provided at a time which is subject to the approval of the head of the shift.

Section 7 Call-Back Pay

Employees called back to work outside their normal workday shall be paid a minimum of two (2) hours at time and one-half (1 1/2) and may be required to work up to two (2) hours on tasks related to the tasks for which they were called back to work or on tasks which would require a call back.

Section 8 On-Call Pay

One employee from the Building Services Maintenance Staff will be on active standby each week. The employee who is on active standby will carry a pager and will be available to be called back to work during all non-working hours for the week that he/she is on active standby. An employee on active standby who is actually called back to work will be compensated for the time actually worked as provided in the previous sections of this Article. Regardless of whether or not the employee is called back to work, he/she will receive the following compensation:

- A. Effective July 1, 2000 the employee shall receive Fifty-one dollars and twenty cents ($51.20) per week as active standby pay in addition to his/her regular compensation. This is based upon One hundred and twenty eight (128) non-working hours per week at forty cents ($.40) per hour.

If an employee is not able to be on active standby for a full week, they will be compensated at the following rate:

- A. Effective July 1, 2000 the employee shall receive forty cents ($.40) per hour per normal non-working hour for the time that they are actually on active standby.

If an employee is not able to be on active standby for their full assigned week, it is their responsibility to find another Maintenance Staff employee to exchange times with them. Any time there is a change in the active standby roster, the employee initially assigned the active standby duty is responsible for informing the Department Head prior to the change.

ARTICLE XIII
NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUT

The Union recognizes its statutory obligations and responsibility to avoid and avert a strike. Therefore, for the duration of this Agreement, the Union agrees that neither it, its officers, agents, representatives or members, individually or collectively, directly or indirectly, will induce, instigate, encourage, authorize, ratify, or participate in a strike against the Employer.

The Union recognizes that in the event of a work stoppage, the Union has an obligation and a duty to urge any and all employees who may be involved in such activity to return to work immediately and to refrain from such work stoppage. The Union will make public statements in the mass media urging employees to immediately return to work.

The Employer has the right to take any other action pursuant to Iowa Code Section 20.12.

No lockout of employees shall be instituted by the Employer during the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV
General

Separability and Savings

Should any Article or Section of this Agreement be found invalid, unlawful, or not enforceable by reason of any existing or subsequently enacted legislation or by final judicial decision, the remaining Articles and Sections shall continue in full force and effect for the duration of the Agreement. The parties will promptly meet for the purpose of negotiating an appropriate replacement for the offending Article or Section.

In the event the parties fail to agree on provisions for substitute within fifteen (15) days following the start of negotiations, the parties shall request a list of five (5) arbitrators from the Public Employment Relations Board. The first strike shall be decided by a coin toss and the parties shall alternately strike until there is one name remaining who shall become the arbitrator. Either party may request a second list of arbitrators from the Public Employment Relations Board if they so desire. The arbitrator shall decide between the management's and Union's final offer as to which is the most appropriate substitute.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

ARTICLE XV
